

Purpose of this Communication

The purpose of this communication is to notify home health agencies of a growing opportunity for specialty infusion nursing. CareCentrix has a network of home infusion pharmacies that dispense specialty infusion medication, pumps, and supplies directly to the patient's home. The associated demand for complimentary specialty infusion nursing is rising dramatically.

What do I need to do?

- If interested, please complete a short questionnaire using the link below so we may consider your agency for participation in the specialty infusion nursing product line.
